

2019 Transportation Economic Development Program Solicitation

The Minnesota Department of Transportation will solicit project applications for the Transportation Economic Development (TED) program beginning June 2019. MnDOT anticipates awarding up to $20 million for construction projects on Minnesota's state highways that have measurable economic benefits. Application forms will be available on the TED website in June.

Simultaneously, the Minnesota Department of Employee and Economic Development will be soliciting for the Transportation Economic Development Infrastructure (TEDI) program. DEED anticipates awarding approximately $1.1 million for transportation construction projects that are not on the state highway system.

The TED and TEDI funding programs are designed to help meet the state's transportation and economic development needs by creating and preserving well-paying jobs and leveraging private and local investment in transportation infrastructure. The application deadline for both programs is September 6th, 2019.

Information sessions about the application process will be held in eight locations throughout the state. Session location dates and times are:
