

Mid-Minnesota Development Commission
Commissioners Serving in the Public Interest
(i.e., Special Interest Commissioners)
FY 2026 (Updated Sept. 2025)

Brent Guyan (Litchfield, MN)	Representing the Renewable Energy Sector
Jill Hoff (Hutchinson, MN)	Representing the Local Workforce Investment Board
José Luciano (Lester Prairie, MN)	Representing Communities of Color
Maureen Melgaard-Schneider (Willmar, MN)	Representing Aging Individuals
Robert Moller (Spicer, MN)	Representing the Agriculture & Aggregate Mining Sectors
Shawn Mueske (Willmar, MN)	Representing Higher Education
Rollie Nissen (Willmar, MN)	Representing the Transportation Sector
Berit Spors (Hutchinson, MN)	Representing People with Disabilities and Youth
Reagan Quinn (Darwin, MN)	Representing the Mental Health/Substance Abuse Treatment Sector
Kiza Olson (Darwin, MN)	Representing the Healthcare Sector
Vacant	Representing the Information Technology Sector

Note: MMDC Bylaws allow up to 12 commissioners serving on behalf of one or more public interests.